18th March 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am excited to be able to give you more information about our Sacred Heart Book Day, which will take place next Wednesday 24th March.

The theme of the day will be 'Bedtime Stories' and the children will be able to come to school wearing their pyjamas. Please ensure that these are suitable for a day at school (including being warm enough to play outside in the playground). For safety reasons children should not bring slippers or a dressing gown to school. To really get into the spirit of the 'Bedtime Stories' theme the children will also share milk and cookies while reading stories in class.

For this week only Year 5's P.E day will be moved to Friday, so that they are able to take part in the Book Day dressed in their pyjamas.

During the day the children will take part in lots of fun activities based around books and stories. The teachers have been busy planning these and will share them with the children on the day. In usual times the children would be read stories by teachers from other classes. This year the storytelling will take place virtually, with teachers recording their favourite stories to be shared in classes.

Thank you to all of the parents who have added a photograph of their child reading or holding their favourite book for our special Sacred Heart Book Day video. It is not too late to add a picture - the deadline for this is tomorrow Friday 19th March. To safeguard your child and your family please ensure that there are no other children in the photograph and that it is taken with a neutral background. Please add your photograph to our padlet:

We will be sharing the video with the children during a special assembly on Sacred Heart Book Day and then sharing it with our families across our social media platforms. We hope to have as many children and staff in the video as possible, so please do add a photograph so your child will be able to spot themselves on the day!

We are really looking forward to celebrating our love of reading with the children.

Yours Faithfully,

Jaime Byast
