Dear Parents/Carers,

School uniform expectations – no earrings

It continues to be noted that some pupils are arriving at school wearing earrings. We have previously raised this with parents and carers and this led to some improvements – we are grateful for this parental support where this has been the case.

Most importantly, earrings are not permitted to be worn to school under any circumstances. This is non-negotiable because of the associated health and safety risks to children.

The school's position on earrings forms part of our governor-approved school uniform expectations for Sacred Heart School and Nursery. Parents/carers are advised of our uniform expectations (including the fact that earrings are not permitted) before the point of admission into the school/nursery and the school's expectation that these are adhered to.

We hope that this information offers a useful reminder to parents/carers. In the case of pupils not adhering to this uniform requirement, parents/carers will receive notice and advised on the actions that are necessary to rectify this.

We look forward to your support of this important aspect of our school.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Janet Mullally
Headteacher
